

PICCHIONE VISITING SCHOLAR PROGRAMME

DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the Picchione Visiting Scholar Program is to bring to Dalhousie internationally respected scholars recognized for having made significant contributions to the advancement of their respective fields of endeavour. The Picchione Visiting Scholar Program will provide up to $3,250 to support each visit. No minimum or maximum period of stay is required. Competitions are held annually.

It is anticipated that the purpose of these visits will vary greatly, however in all cases the Visiting Scholar is expected to interact with faculty members, trainees and/or the public through planned lectures, seminars or participation in a conference or special event within the Faculty of Medicine. Preference will be given to those applications where not only the level of interaction is greatest but where the visit is intended to have a specific and significant contribution to the sponsor's research program.
